

Sisters Striving for Excellence, Inc.
Empowering females to become their best...

SSE

For the past ten years, Sisters Striving for Excellence, Inc. has been working within the city of Savannah to assist local community development organizations revitalize Savannah's neighborhoods and communities. Our primary objective is to promote public awareness and provide information while educating underprivileged inner city kids, teens, and college students.

To date, we have:

- ⇒ Provided 1800 FREE books to the Students of East Broad Elementary School through our partnership with Reading is Fundamental (RIF)
- ⇒ Assisted to help maintain clean streets with Adopt-A-Street. (In September 2010, we were presented an Adopt-A-Street sign for our commitment.)
- ⇒ Daily we tutor, mentor, and assist at the Frank Callen Boys and Girls Club
- ⇒ Partnered with Kuddle Buddies to assist with their on-going effort of collecting teddy bears for pediatric cancer patients
- ⇒ Annually offer a $300 scholarship to one of the male students that attend Savannah State University. As our "Man of Excellence" this gentleman assist with creating additional community service opportunities on campus and within the community.

Although this is only a brief summary of our mission, we wanted to give you a glimpse of our devotion, dedication, and loyalty. We are committed to building on these accomplishments to improve the quality of life in the greater Savannah and Atlanta area.

One of the cornerstones of our success has been our ability to build partnerships. We know that your organization is a staple within the community and we are asking for your assistance to help us ascend to greater heights. We have several options for donors and/or sponsorships. Any amount will assist with the many initiatives we have planned for the 2011-2012 year. Please help us, help even more.

We look forward to building a wonderful relationship with you!

Humbled with a Heart of Service,

Tawana Neecle Gibbs
